Oh, the modernity!

Thinking of Boulder as the home of Victorian gingerbread, funky bungalows and student condos? Nope. Think Boulder Modern Home Tour. Think soaring views, eco-friendly materials and a solid rootedness in nature. Six modern homes are on view 11 a.m.-5 p.m. Sept. 15 at various locations in and around the city. Advance tickets, $25, get you into all of the homes and are on sale until 8 p.m. Sept. 14 (check the website for the three will-call locations). Day-of tickets are available at any of the homes for $30. Tickets and more at boulder.modernhometours.com.

Peek inside a Vail home, help a student

Eight "unique and inspiring" homes have been selected for Vail Mountain School's 41st annual Home Tour on Sept. 16. Festivities, also celebrating the school's 50th academic anniversary, include a luncheon, art and music by VMS students, a trade show, a raffle with more than $20,000 in prizes, and the Gourmet Pantry. Proceeds are used for tuition assistance at VMS. Tickets are $45, $40 for students and seniors 62 and over before Tuesday, $55 starting Wednesday. 970-477-7170, vms.edu/hometour

Boulder Modern Home Tour

Saturday, Sep 15, 2012 11:00a to 5:00p

Boulder Modern Home Tour Boulder, CO

Boulder Modern Home Tour. Tour 6 modern homes in the Boulder area. We've scoured the area and had creative homeowners, designers, architects and builders submit some of the most interesting Boulder residences. We've curated them to ensure a well-balanced tour featuring the most cutting-edge contemporary design that takes advantage of the stunning Colorado landscape. You may tour the homes in any order you choose and at any pace you like.

Date: Saturday, September 15, 2012 At 11:00 AM

Duration: All Day

Saturday September 15

11am-5pm (Self-Guided: go at your own pace)

The popular national Modern Home Tour event series is making a stop in Boulder! Barrett Studio is proud to showcase Casa M, a Mexican-modern family home featuring innovative fire-resistant construction. Built for the Four Mile Fire First Responder and his family, Casa M brings a technical perspective to safe construction in our ecology. From indoor outdoor dining to passive solar design strategies & sustainable materials, it's also brimming with ideas for modern design lovers! From there, hop on your bike (or car for homes in the hills!) and be treated to other modern marvels from Boulder's top architects.

TICKETS: Tickets may be purchased in advance for $25 using the following link: <http://bouldermodernhome.com> or for $30 the day of the tour at any of the homes. Use promo code YELP for a $5 discount on all advance tickets (doesn't apply to day-of tickets).

More than just an aesthetic, "Modern" embodies new construction techniques and materials, and new ways of addressing old problems. "Modern" is not just what you live in, but how you live. From attainability to sustainability, the singular thread that connects "Modern" is an outlook that embraces new possibilities in living and lifestyle. With carefully selected architects, neighborhoods and architecture, our home tours are unlike anything you've ever seen. Not only will you learn about the cutting edge of home design, but you might even get an idea or two for your next home project!
